Marriage Myths

Myth:

Why do movies, TV and other media constantly portray marriage as stupid, restrictive and an end to freedom? I guess there are millions who aren't listening to this myth because...

Truth:

Married Americans were more than twice as likely as divorced or separated Americans to say they were very happy with their life in general. Even those who were co-habiting, single or widowed shared this same low outlook on life. It seems Hollywood is getting it wrong - AGAIN!

Question of the Month

Who said:

"Marriage is not a noun; it's a verb. It isn't something you get. It is something you do. It's the way you love your partner every day!"

Marriage Coaching Workshop Hosted by Western Seminary

The Western Seminary Marriage Coaching workshop was a huge success. Participants learned and practiced the coaching skills and couples walked away with specific agreements on how they were going to encourage each other to use their enhanced communication skills as a result of being coached. Participants reported that the workshop was very practical and they felt empowered and equipped to coach another couple after the 7 hour workshop. A typical comment was "Excellent, practical tools and skills that were easy to implement." Couples who coach for MarriageTeam are required to complete 24 hours of training and skill building.
