MarriageTeam Coaching Creates Lasting Change

We are so grateful for this resource and for the affordable rate! When we stumbled upon this during an internet search, it felt like we had struck gold!

Thank you for making the practical and effective resource available to couples in need of support, encouragement and hope. - TANISHA | AUSTIN, TX

Practical and effective from session one! Our coaches held us accountable with grace. We were given skills we can use for a lifetime. We were able to have hard and deep conversations.

It was a game changer! - JOE AND LAURA | TACOMA, WA

Coaching combines evaluating, learning, practicing, encouragement and accountability...

a powerful combination that counseling, books, seminars, etc... alone cannot provide.

WE CAN HELP YOU RESOLVE CONFLICTS, RESTORE HOPE, INCREASE INTIMACY AND CREATE THE MARRIAGE YOU DESIRE.

WHETHER YOU HAVE LOST HOPE FOR YOUR MARRIAGE OR HAVE JUST GROWN TIRED OF THE SAME OLD FIGHTS, OUR COACHES CAN HELP.

MarriageTeam is a faith-based social agency that provides coaching and support for husbands and wives who are struggling in their marriage. Our coaches are highly trained and care deeply about helping you.

Through coaching, you'll develop new and unique ways to engage with one another that work better for both of you.

Anger and bitterness often exist in relationships where conflict has been ongoing.

You'll spend multiple sessions addressing these issues and working through them. We have helped thousands of people work through very painful and challenging issues and finally put these hurts behind them. In fact, 89% of couples who were considering divorce decide to stay together after completing coaching.

Coaching will help you better understand your spouse so you can more effectively handle expectations, anger, conflict, problems, and personality differences. With improved communications and better understanding, you can have a more satisfying and rewarding marriage where you work together to create the future you desire.

Our coaches will facilitate a process of discovery to help you explore areas of conflict to find the "hidden" issues that fuel your continued struggles. They also help you come up with agreements about how to do things differently when facing conflict.

Please call us (360.450.6042) if you would like more information about partnering with us to strengthen and/or restore your marriage; or you can quickly apply online at marriageteam.org. It will be our pleasure to serve you!

I was surprised that the coaches didn't try to fix our issues. They taught us how to communicate so we could fix them ourselves now and in the future. We had talked many times about divorce, and a good day was when we didn't fight. Now, we talk and enjoy each other's company again.
